I) Early Education Centers

The Los Angeles Unified School District has many Early Education Centers throughout the San Fernando Valley. To qualify for their program the child must be 2 years of age and potty trained (2 – 4 years old); the parent must be working or in school full time; and the family must be low income.

The Centers are open between the hours of 6:00 am and 6:00 pm. To apply, parents should contact the closest center to their home. There are never immediate openings, and the waiting list is generally very long. However, it is prioritized based on the family's income and the number of family members in the home. It is recommended that parents put their name on the waitlist.

II) School Readiness Language Development Program (SRLDP)

SRLDP is an oral language program intended to prepare students for kindergarten. It provides students the opportunity to increase the ability to listen, to speak effectively, to use vocabulary appropriately, and to develop academic readiness skills. It provides a parent involvement and education program that helps meet the needs of parents to positively facilitate the child's developmental potential.

The program is available for children who will be 4 years old by December 2nd of the year of enrollment. Program is located at specific LAUSD Elementary schools, and parents should contact the Early Education Division (213) 241-4713 to find the closest location to their home. The program runs Monday-Thursday and lasts 2 ½ hours.

III) State Preschool

The State Preschool Program is a three-hour educational program for children ages 3 and 4 years old. These programs are located at Early Education centers, elementary schools and adult schools. There is a parent component where parents may be asked to volunteer or attend parent education trainings. To enroll, a family must complete an application and provide supporting income documentation demonstrating eligibility need.
